Riverbend- The Ultimate Hinterland Retreat

If you are looking for a relaxed lifestyle in the Byron Hinterland this property offers a myriad of opportunities and a large home to enjoy with your family, friends and guests. Welcome to Riverbend, where an enviable lifestyle awaits.

Riverbend is suitably named because it adjoins 1 km of creek frontage and the house verandah decks over look the natural bend in the Creek which eventually joins Wilsons River. Most of the 28 acres are reserved for native wildlife, with minimal areas of lawn and gardens surrounding the house for easy maintenance. This unique property offers privacy, tranquility and a sanctuary from city life, while embracing all the benefits of Hinterland living entwined with nature and with every modern comfort.

The expansive north east facing Verandah decks of the main residence and accommodation wing, offers breathtaking views of the immaculate gardens and stunning surrounding forest adjoining the meandering Wilsons Creek below. The accommodation wing is incorporated with the main house roofing, but can be accessed privately with its own driveway, undercover car parking and its own gated, fully fenced courtyard.
